DEDICATED TO CAPT. THOMAS McHOSE YODER, U. S. N. A.

TO SAVE THE WORLD FOR FREEDOM

POEM BY

Frederick H. Martens

MUSIC BY

Arthur Leonard

50 CENTS

Published by Arthur Leonard
144 WEST 75th STREET
NEW YORK

To Save The World For Freedom

Poem by FREDERICK H. MARTENS.

Music by ARTHUR LEONARD.

INTRO.
'Mid the Piano.
ff
marcato.
fff
mf shore of eith-er o-cean, In the cit-ies, on the farms, In ev-'ry state and f coun-try; Hark, the toc-sin calls to arms! And we fol-low, fol-low, fol-low, Wher-cresc.
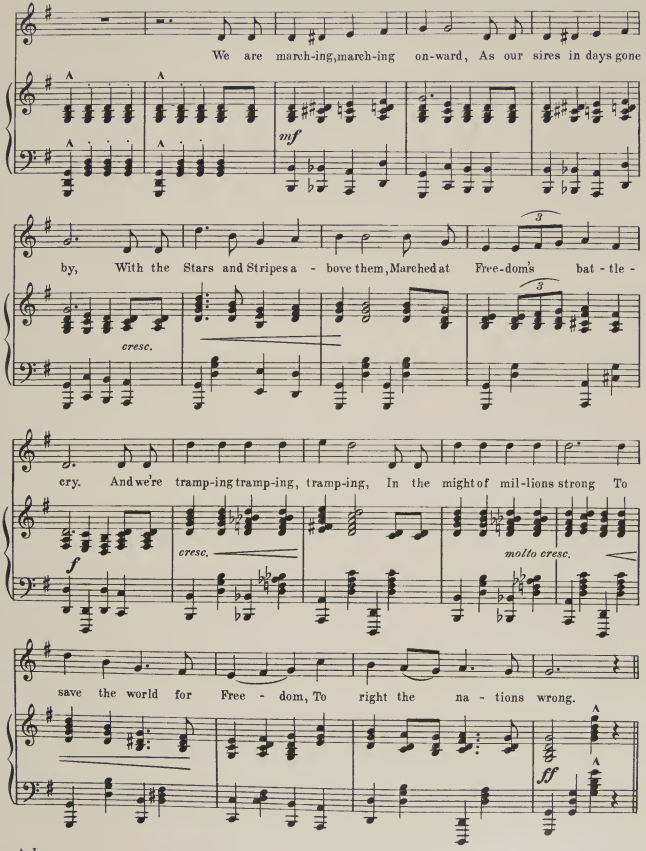
-ever the flag may guide, To save the world for free-dom, That right on earth a-bide.
molto cresc.
fff

A. L.

Copyright 1917 by Arthur Leonard



We are march-ing, march-ing on-ward, As our sires in days gone
mf
by, With the Stars and Stripes a - bove them, Marched at Free-dom's bat - tle - cresc.
3
cry. And we're tramp-ing tramp-ing, tramp-ing, In the might of mil-lions strong To f cresc.
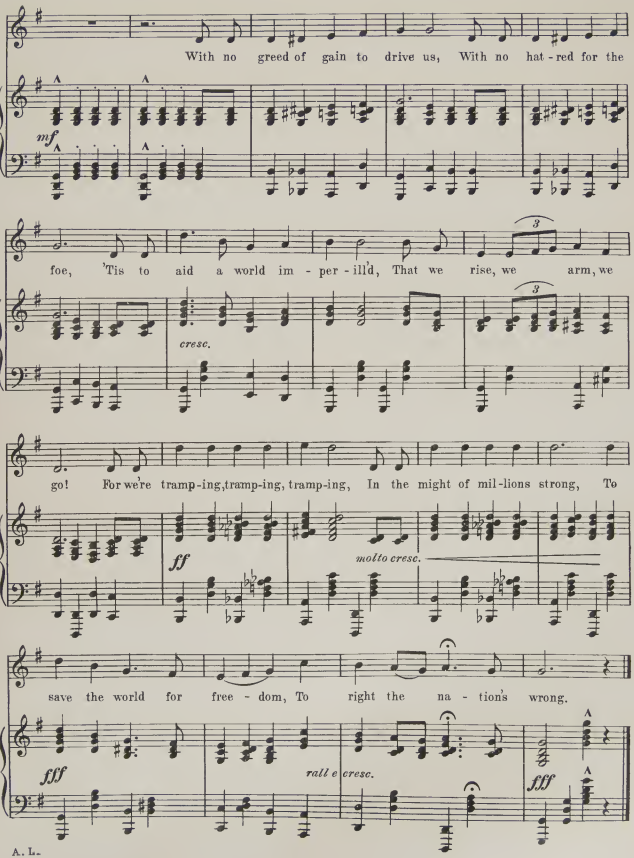
molto cresc.
save the world for Free - dom, To right the na - tions wrong.
ff

A.L.



With no greed of gain to drive us, With no hat - red for the
mf
foe, 'Tis to aid a world im - per - ill'd, That we rise, we arm, we cresc.
go! For we're tramp-ing, tramp-ing, tramp-ing, In the might of mil-lions strong, To ff
molto cresc.
save the world for free - dom, To right the na - tion's wrong.
fff
ralt e cresc.
fff

A. L.